Every dish has a story, from how we source our meat as locally as possible to how we ensure the animals we select are all red tractor farm assured. We search far and wide to seek out the best quality produce from land and sea, from seasonal vegetables brought fresh to our door, to sustainably sourced fish caught fresh daily. Our chefs strive for perfection and the menu that we have generated celebrates the best of British using big bold flavours, meaning every dish has a labour of love put into it!
